At Gainford each one of our venues have their own unique style, personality and appeal, attracting visitors and celebrities from all over the world, but what they all have in common is an inviting atmosphere and unrivalled service for a truly personal experience.

Get a true taste of Newcastle with a stay at one of our city centre hotels or apartments. The County Hotel is one of Newcastle original hotels dating back to 1874, located directly opposite Newcastle Central Station. If you're looking for something a little different with ample space to revel in luxury, our self-catering County Aparthotel awaits in the heart of Newcastle's historic Grainger Town. The Vermont Hotel is one of Newcastle's best loved hotels and luxury venues, sitting at a height overlooking the sparkling Quayside, offers an unrivalled luxury experience. The Vermont Aparthotel is one of Newcastle's most exclusive self-catering apartments located in the prime location of Newcastle Quayside.

Our range of city centre bars & restaurants are the stars of Newcastle's dining & drinking scene, offering everything you need this festive season, from exquisite food to eclectic late-night cocktails.

Visit our rooftop bar, Above, located at the top of The Vermont Hotel, which offers 360-degree panoramic views of Newcastle city; the ideal location to start the evening before dining at our Newcastle Quayside award-winning restaurant Aveika for a modern and inspiring twist on Japanese food. Livello is one of Newcastle's most sought-after luxury nightlife venues with some of the region's most prolific DJs, offering world class VIP experience. The Hudson blends old-school glamour with contemporary class; adjoining to The County Hotel, it offers the finest cocktails in the heart of the city.
